Minors should not disclose Personally-Identifiable Information on this Website without the approval and supervision of a parent or guardian.

COLLECTION AND USE OF NON-PERSONAL INFORMATION

Non-Personal Information is gathered automatically each time you visit the Website. SpectrumHP uses the aggregated data from the Non-Personal Information gathered to improve Website performance and enhance the user experience by responding to trends in page views, linking within the site and interactions with selected ads.

For example, "cookies" – small pieces of information that the Website and other sites place on your computer's hard drive – help the Website remember your preferences, provide information targeted to your interests and location, and otherwise make your Website experience more enjoyable. "Web beacons" are images embedded in the code of the Website that helps us monitor traffic patterns amongst our users.

We may disclose the aggregated data to our vendors, such as web hosting services and/or graphic designers, to improve the Website. We may also share the aggregated data with third-party service providers, such as online advertisers, to allow them to generate contextual advertisements on the Website.

SpectrumHP cannot collect your Personally-Identifiable Information without your consent and participation. You may be required to disclose Personally-Identifiable Information in order to register for an account or transact business on the Website. By submitting your Personally-Identifiable Information, you authorize SpectrumHP to use that Personally-Identifiable Information to provide the interaction or service you have initiated.

You also agree that SpectrumHP may disclose part or all of your Personally-Identifiable Information when SpectrumHP believes, in good faith, that the law requires or compels such disclosure; or when SpectrumHP has a reason to believe that disclosure is necessary to protect SpectrumHP's rights or property, or the rights or property of another; or to prevent harm. Further, SpectrumHP may disclose personal and/or corporate information provided by you as part of any merger, sale, or other acquisition of some or all of SpectrumHP's organization or its assets.

By way of example and not limitation, Personally-Identifiable Information is transmitted to SpectrumHP over an encrypted connection and stored in a secure database at SpectrumHP's or its vendors' facility.

THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS "PERFECT" SECURITY ONLINE. Please bear that in mind when deciding what Personally-Identifiable Information to disclose to SpectrumHP. If at any time you are asked for Personally-Identifiable Information you do not wish to be disclosed in any of the ways discussed above, you should terminate the transaction or cancel your account registration immediately.

If you choose to register for an account via the Website, you are solely responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account information (i.e., user ID, password and/or challenge questions). SpectrumHP is not liable for any unauthorized disclosure of your Personally-Identifiable Information that results from your failure to adequately protect your account information.
